Twenty Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The words of the Lord in all the reading of this twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time focus on Faith, Work, and Gratitude.

A first reading from the Second Book of Kings, tell us the story of Naaman the man with worldly power and yet he is also the man of sickness as a leper. The Gospel of Luke also tell us the story of ten men who also are lepers. Saint Paul in his writing to Timothy reminds...that in Jesus Christ together with eternal glory...He always remains faithful for He cannot deny himself...this is my Gospel... this saying is trust worthy.

I hope as we meditate in the words of God this weekend, each one of us will open our hearts and our minds to welcome the words we read and pray that with the help of the Holy Spirit we will have the courage to renew our Faith with work and gratitude with all the blessing we have received from God and as the same time to be able to change our life as we continue to follow Jesus Christ.

As I write this message the weather in Prague Oklahoma also change. The hot weather of Summer season comes to the end of their time and the cold front weather of Fall is already at the door of their season.

Let us thank God for all the gifts we have received, let us pray for the whole world especially, for our own country as we always profess, "One Nation Under One God". With all of us at Saint Wenceslaus, Home of the Infant of Prague and Saint Michael parish mission. We thank you for all your prayers and support. We light the candle of Faith, Work and Gratitude for each one of you everyday.

Let us together enter into the Season of Advent with full confidence and with the assurance of Faith, Work and Gratitude in the Infant of Prague.

Sincerely,

Priest Long Phan Ngoc
