

Message of the week

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

How God loves our freedom! As if singing a hymn, he says through Sirach: "If you choose you can keep the commandments. If you trust in God, you too shall live To whichever you choose, fire or water, stretch forth your hand!" This is the righteousness that "surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees." God's wisdom, mysterious, hidden" has revealed it to us. "Whoever obeys and teaches these commandments will be called greatest in the kingdom of heaven." We long to be counted among them, even to the point of tearing out our right eye, cutting off our right hand. For heaven must be rife with one-eyed, one-armed saints who reconciled with offending brothers and sisters...who refused to let lust master them. We stretch forth our one remaining hand to the fire of the Holy Spirit, to the water of our baptism, letting our Yes mean Yes.

Mensaje de la semana

Sexto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario,

Cómo Dios ama nuestra libertad! Como si cantar un himno, dice a través del Sirácida: "Si usted elige usted puede guardar los mandamientos. Si la confianza en Dios, usted también deberá vivir para que elijas, fuego o agua, extiende tu mano!" Esta es la justicia que "supera la de los escribas y fariseos." La sabiduría de Dios, misteriosa, escondida" ha revelado a nosotros. "Quien obedece y enseña estos mandamientos será llamado grande en el reino de los cielos." Tenemos tiempo para ser contados entre ellos, incluso hasta el punto de romperse nuestro ojo derecho, cortando la mano derecha. Para el cielo debe ser inundada con el tuerto, una armada de santos que reconciliarse con ofender a los hermanos y hermanas... quien se negó a permitir que la lujuria dominarlos. Nos extiende nuestra mano restante con el fuego del Espíritu Santo, para que el agua de nuestro bautismo, dejando nuestro sí significa sí.
