THE NATIONAL SHRINE OF THE INFANT JESUS OF PRAGUE July 2021

THE MORE YOU HONOR ME
THE MORE I WILL BLESS YOU

“Our Father who art in Heaven...” This prayer was taught by Jesus to us from the New Testament. Jesus reveals to us in Heaven we all have One Father who loves each one of us perfectly and last for eternity. I believe Jesus knew the life of all the fathers on earth can never be perfect as they try. According to the Holy Scripture the first earthly father “Adam” who failed his mission after listening to Satan. Jesus introduces to us the new version of a Perfect Father in His prayer. Sometimes for many reasons a man cannot perform his duty as a perfect father to his children. Still, he gives his children life to begin with. As we move toward the celebration of Father’s Day in our country. Let us sincerely thank our fathers for their kindness toward us and pray for them if ever they do anything wrong toward us and pray that we sincerely ask for their forgiveness if we ever do anything wrong to them. We pray that our Heavenly Father will forgive all of us as well. If they are still living on earth that they will be blessed by their children, and if they already have passed from this life on earth, that they will rest for eternal peace with The Father as Jesus taught us to pray Let us also remember to pray the Our Father at least once a day or more so we can keep the Words of Jesus and keep our connection with Our Father in Heaven until He will welcome each one of us Home in Heaven for life of everlasting.

All of us here at the Shrine of the Infant Jesus of Prague in Oklahoma send our prayers and our love to each one of you and your family. We also made a decision to light one perpetual candle for all of your intentions as a way of thanking you for your love and your support. Please keep in touch and let us know if there is anything else we can do for you.

Sincerely,

Father Long Phan Ngoc
