THE NATIONAL SHRINE OF THE INFANT JESUS OF PRAGUE

JANUARY 2019

THE MORE YOU HONOR ME

THE MORE I WILL BLESS YOU

“...What should we do?...” The question from the People to John the Baptist today In Luke’s Gospel can be our own question to God as well. Those who want to do the will of God have to pray and renew their action to serve God and others every day.

For myself, I have pondered about what I should do almost every morning, afternoon and evening throughout the day. It may sound unrealistic to a person my age and with my vocation. Yet, this was true of me...until I took a personal trip to Israel last month. God had to help me know the answer I was looking for”.. Whoever has two cloaks should share with the person who has none. And whoever has food should do likewise...” I understand now that I just need to live in reality: to be faithful to my daily ordinary circumstances of my vocation and to share with others the love I have received from God. I hope that all of us and those in the world can understand the meaning from the teaching of our Lord Jesus Christ and do our best to follow it.

May this Holy Season of Christmas and this New Year bring Love, Joy and Comfort to the whole world. And may we no longer wonder about what we should do as John the Baptist advised the people in his time.

May the Infant Jesus of Prague bless us all and send Blessings this Christmas and New Year to you and your families from all of us here at the Shrine. Thank you for your journey with us in your prayers and your support.

Glory to God the Holy One of Israel who lives among us, and Peace to all the Earth.

Sincerely,

Father Long Phan Ngoc
