Message of the Week

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Lord’s promise through Jeremiah—”I myself will gather my flock”—comes true today through Christ who beckons, “Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.” “Beside restful waters he leads me”; the waters are Jesus himself. When others “came to know about” this retreat, “they hastened there on foot,” eager to “become near by the blood of Christ.” This desire moves Jesus’ heart with “pity”: godly concern that restores to the needy the ability to live their destiny. For even in their desolation, the “vast crowd” realizes that Jesus alone “is our peace” who makes us one “through his flesh.”

Mensaje de la semana

Decimosexto Domingo en el tiempo ordinario

La promesa del Señor a través de Jeremías — "yo mismo reuniré mi rebaño" — se hace realidad hoy por medio de Cristo que llama, "vengan por ustedes mismos a un lugar desierto y descansen un rato". "al lado de las aguas de reposo que me conduce"; las aguas son Jesús mismo. Cuando otros "llegaron a conocer" este retiro, "se apresuraron allí a pie," ansiosos de "estar cerca de la sangre de Cristo." Este deseo mueve el corazón de Jesús con "piedad": preocupación piadosa que restablece a los necesitados la capacidad de vivir su destino. Para Even en su desolación, la "vasta muchedumbre" se da cuenta de que Jesús solo "es nuestra paz" quien nos hace uno "a través de su carne".
