Message of the Week Eleventh Sunday In ordinary Time

The Heart of God aches to "tear off a tender shoot" from a mighty cedar and "plant it on a high and lofty mountain" so that birds of every kind shall dwell beneath it." That is, the Lord wants to reveal his glory by taking up our nothingness and our insignificance and turning it into something "majestic" by the pure force of his love, for this to happen in us, Jesus asks that we pay the same attention to the little things of life—like mustard seeds—that he does. Christ speaks in parables because "reality itself is a parable. The parable does not approach our experience of the world from without; on the contrary, it is the parable that gives this experience its proper depth and reveals what is hidden in things themselves" (Pope Benedict XVI). When we "walk by faith, not by sight: the hidden depths of things become apparent.

Mensaje de la semana

Undécimo Domingo en el tiempo ordinario

El corazón de Dios duele de "arrancar un retoño tierno" de un poderoso cedro y "plantarlo en una montaña alta y elevada" para que aves de todo tipo habiten debajo de ella. " Es decir, el Señor quiere revelar su gloria tomando nuestra nada y nuestra insignificancia y convirtiéndola en algo "majestuoso" por la fuerza pura de su amor, para que esto suceda en nosotros, Jesús pide que prestemos la misma atención a las pequeñas cosas de la vida — como debe las semillas de ARD — eso es lo que hace. Cristo habla en parábolas porque "la realidad misma es una parábola. La parábola no se acerca a nuestra experiencia del mundo desde fuera; por el contrario, es la parábola la que da a esta experiencia su propia profundidad y revela lo que se esconde en las cosas mismas "(Papa Benedicto XVI). Cuando "Caminamos por la fe, no por la vista: las profundidades ocultas de las cosas se hacen evidentes.
