Message of the Week

Fourth Sunday of Lent

"In those days the people added infidelity to infidelity." And God's response "early and often" was to have "compassion on his people"— a compassion to often taken for granted. The "people preferred darkness to light" and were taken into captivity in Babylon. Desolate in their exile, they experienced "the immeasurable riches of his grace" through a refusal to forget God. Those who are dead in their transgressions and who remember that "God is rich in mercy" bear sure hope to be brought "to life with Christ." So much does God love those exiled in the world, "he gave his only Son."

Mensaje de la semana

Cuarto domingo de Cuaresma

"en aquellos días la gente añadió infidelidad a la infidelidad." Y la respuesta de Dios "temprana y a menudo" era tener "compasión por su pueblo" — una compasión a menudo tomada por sentada. La "gente prefirió la oscuridad a la luz" y fueron tomadas en captividad en Babilonia. Desolados en su exilio, experimentaron "las inconmensurables riquezas de su gracia" a través de una negativa a olvidar a Dios. Los que están muertos en sus transgresiones y que recuerdan que "Dios es rico en misericordia" tienen la esperanza de ser traídos "a la vida con Cristo". Tanto Dios ama a los exiliados en el mundo, "él dio a su único hijo."
