THE NATIONAL SHRINE OF THE INFANT JESUS OF PRAGUE March 2019

THE MORE YOU HONOR ME

THE MORE I WILL BLESS YOU

“...They rose up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built, to hurl him down headlong, but Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away. “Luke’s Gospel this Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time shows us the full picture of how our human weakness can happen toward others and God and how God’s kindness and mercy toward all of us.

We are limited by our nature. We will never be able to understand or to love others the way we must because of Sin. For this reason, Jesus the Son of God became one like us in everything but sin to help us to be like him so we can understand and love each other. We can do this only by praying with the Holy Scripture as often as we can to allow the wisdom of God to help us to understand the Words of God. And we must receive the Holy Eucharist more regularly so Jesus can be close to us to help us in every situation of life. Without this Divine help there is no way we can approach Jesus and others the way God commands. This is the invitation from God in Jesus to the whole world. Let us pray that we can be like God and not that God will be like us. Let us not be jealous or upset when God’s miracles happen to others and not to us.

May the blessing of the Infant Jesus be with all of us and with the whole world. Thank you for your support of the Shrine which allows us to open daily to serve the need of all the people.

The More you Honor Me
The More I Will Bless You

Sincerely,

Father Long Phan Ngoc
