THE NATIONAL SHRINE OF THE INFANT JESUS OF PRAGUE May 2019

THE MORE YOU HONOR ME

THE MORE I WILL BLESS YOU

“...Father, into your hands I commend my spirit and when he had said this he breathed his last...”

As I pray with these words of Our Lord Jesus Christ for Palm Sunday, I pray that as we breathe our last, from this earthly life we all will say the same words as Jesus said, we can rest for eternity with our Father in heaven.

The passion of Jesus is also reflecting in our passion or we can tell the story of our life on earth. We are joyful to be born but we are also tearful to endure the suffering of our daily life. This mystery of life is applying to all of us, it does not matter who we are. The more ages we are the more we come to understand this mystery more clearly. We all leave this earth like Jesus one day.

I ask myself so what is the matter? Should I try my best to accept and to thank you Jesus for voluntarily show me this reality or should I reject this truth and live a life of carelessness about it. I believe in Our Lord Jesus Christ and I will continue to try my best everyday to live my life according to what I believe. What about you? I hope you can find your answer and live accordingly with it.

May the passion and resurrection of Our Lord Jesus Christ give us hope and peace as we live in this life and give us eternal joy in the life of Eternal.

We thank you for your devotion to the Infant Jesus of Prague, your devotion also helps us as we carry this glory of the Infant in our daily service here in Prague, Oklahoma.

The More You Honor Me

The More I Will Bless You.

Sincerely,

Father Long Phan Ngoc
