

Message of the Week

Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Why does the master call the two servants “good and faithful”? Because, when entrusted with a vast amount of money, they do not run off or spend the money on themselves. Rather they invest what was given them as their way of revering their relationship with their master. His reply is, “Since you were faithful, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share my joy.” Which means: Come, and be my equal. The worthy wife is valued “far beyond pearls” because she loves her husband and family with just such gratuitous, self-sacrificing love. We are “children of the light” inasmuch as we have been given all surpassing Master and the chance to glorify him by our obedience.

Mensaje de la semana

Trigésimo tercer domingo en el tiempo ordinario

¿por qué el maestro llama a los dos siervos "buenos y fieles"? Porque, cuando se les confía una gran cantidad de dinero, no se escapan o gastan el dinero en sí mismos. Más bien invierten lo que les fue dado como su forma de venerar su relación con su maestro. Su respuesta es, "puesto que usted era fiel, yo le daré grandes responsabilidades." Ven, comparte mi alegría. Lo que significa: ven, y se mi igual. La esposa digna es el valor "mucho más allá de las perlas" porque ella ama a su marido y a su familia con un amor tan gratuito y egoísta. Somos "hijos de la luz" en la medida en que se nos ha dado todo maestro sobrepasando y la oportunidad de glorificarlo por nuestra obediencia.
