Message of the Week

Thirty First Sunday in Ordinary Time.

The Lord does not tell the scribe anything new— anything that the man does not already know. But when the voice of the Word speaks to him, the scribe suddenly listens to his own heart in a new way, with new and sensitive attentiveness, He cries out to Christ, "You are right—to love God is worth more than all burnt offerings!" because that truth has been verified in the infallible experience of his heart. Christ the High Priest "is always able to save those who approach God" with such docility and love.

Mensaje de la semana

Trigésimo primer domingo en el tiempo ordinario.

El Señor no le dice nada nuevo al escribano — nada que el hombre no sepa ya. Pero cuando la voz de la palabra le habla, el escribano de repente escucha a su propio corazón de una manera nueva, con una atención nueva y sensible, clama a Cristo, "tienes razón — amar a Dios vale más que todas las ofrendas quemadas!" porque esa verdad ha sido verificada en la experiencia infalible de su corazón. Cristo el sumo sacerdote "siempre es capaz de salvar a aquellos que se acercan a Dios" con tal docilidad y amor.
