

Message of the Week

Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

The attitude of the Apostle Paul to the Thessalonians is the exact opposite of that of the Pharisees toward their people. The Pharisees "tie up heavy burdens hard to carry and lay them on people's shoulders, but they will not lift a finger to move them." Paul, on the other hand, was "gentle as a nursing mother" among his people sharing with them "not only the Gospel of God, but our very selves as well." That gentleness is the living sign that we all have "the one Father." When we are loved like that we cannot help but be humble. And that humility paves the way for an exaltation we could never create or even concoct on our own.

Mensaje de la semana

Trigésimo primer domingo en el tiempo ordinario

La actitud del apóstol Pablo al Thessalonians es exactamente opuesta a la de los fariseos hacia su pueblo. Los fariseos "atan cargas pesadas difíciles de llevar y las ponen sobre los hombros de la gente, pero no levantarán un dedo para moverlos." Pablo, por otro lado, fue "gentil como una madre de enfermería" entre su gente compartiendo con ellos "no sólo el Evangelio de Dios, sino también nosotros mismos." Esa dulzura es la señal viviente de que todos tenemos "el único Padre". Cuando somos amados así no podemos dejar de ser humildes. Y esa humildad allana el camino para una exaltación que nunca podríamos crear o incluso inventar por nuestra cuenta.
