Message of the Week

Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Beyond all else, we prefer "the spirit of wisdom." Why? Because the wise person knows what he desires, since wisdom enables him to see what is really there. This is what the rich young man lacks. He comes to Jesus with constricting preconceptions that betray just how unaware he is of the One who stands before him. Christ sends him to the poor so that there he will experience the deepest need and longing of his heart. In such self-abandonment the young man can exchange his crippling self-reliance for total dependence on Christ. The living "Word of God" gives us back our own life.

Mensaje de la semana

Vigésimo Octavo Domingo en el tiempo ordinario.

Más allá de todo, preferimos "el espíritu de la sabiduría". ¿Porqué? Porque la persona sabia sabe lo que desea, ya que la sabiduría le permite ver lo que realmente hay allí. Esto es lo que le falta al joven rico. Él viene a Jesús con preconcepciones restrictivas que traicionan cuán inconsciente está de aquel que está delante de él. Cristo lo envía a los pobres para que allí experimente la necesidad más profunda y el anhelo de su corazón. En tal auto-abandono el joven puede intercambiar su autosuficiencia paralizante por la total dependencia de Cristo. La "palabra de Dios" viviente nos devuelve nuestra propia vida.
