THE NATIONAL SHRINE OF THE INFANT JESUS OF PRAGUE

October 2019

THE MORE YOU HONOR ME
THE MORE I WILL BLESS YOU

Great crowds were traveling with Jesus, and he turned and addressed them,".... Anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple." These Words of our Lord Jesus Christ in the Gospel of Luke this Twenty Third Sunday in Ordinary Time make us look at our life and ask ourselves a question. How do we respond to this in our own vocation?

For me this is not one time or an easy question to answer. This is not something we can accomplish from our own will. This requires daily perseverance and putting our trust in God's mercy to help us. To follow Jesus is just the beginning of a call and to do what Jesus ask us to do and survive to the end is truly the core of Jesus's disciples.

Let each one of us be sincere and be honest and look into our vocation to see how we have lived our lives as a disciple of Jesus. Let us continue to ask Jesus to help us to fulfill our vocation with Him day by day until His will be done on us.

May the Peace of the Infant Jesus of Prague shadow the darkness of the world and show the light of God to all.

Thank you for your sincere prayers and support. Please continue to walk with us here at the Shrine so together we will serve our Lord and our neighbors.

Sincerely,

Father Long Phan Ngoc

The Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart Of Mary were donated to the Shrine. They were brought over by a family migrating to the USA in 1905. They they were the only things that survived a fire destroying the original homestead. The family hopes and prays the community may enjoy them for many years

All Shrine members and their families living and deceased are prayed for daily at the National Shrine of the Infant Jesus of Prague.
