

Message of the Week

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary time.

The landowner who planted a vineyard presupposes that hired tenants can be trusted, that additional servants will be able to obtain his produce, and that, when all else fails, treacherous people will respect the sacrosanct relationship of father and son. In short, the man is looking for common decency. But in us even that fails. That is why Saint Paul pleads, "Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me." For at one time he had been like those murderous servants. But, converted to what is true, honorable, just, pure, and gracious, he proclaims that we are the cherished vineyard to whom the father sends his son.

Mensaje de la semana

Vigésimo séptimo el domingo en tiempo ordinario.

El propietario que plantó una viña presupone que se pueden confiar a los inquilinos, que servidores adicionales podrán obtener su producto y que, cuando todo falla más, gente traidora respetará la sacrosanta relación de padre e hijo. En Resumen, el hombre está en busca de decencia. Pero en nosotros hasta que falla. Es por eso San Pablo se declara, «mantenga en lo que ha aprendido y recibido y oído y visto en mí.» Para de una vez había sido como aquellos siervos a los asesinos. Sin embargo, convertirse en lo que es cierto, honorable, justo, puro y amable, él proclama que somos la Viña preciada a quien el padre envía a su hijo.
