Message of the Week

Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sirach counsels, "Conduct your affairs with humility. Humble yourself the more, the greater you are, and you will find favor with God." Christ promises that "the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Why is humility an integral part of Christian righteousness? Humility keeps us mindful of the gift we have been given: to approach "Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant." Thus, humility is not defeatism or a false sense of worthlessness, but a recognition of our true worth in Christ. "It is a calm, clear-sighted virtue, not to be seduced by the tempting prospect of earthly greatness at the cost of spiritual greatness,...humility gives us spiritual common sense, enabling us to see and to act towards things as they are." (Father Walter Farrelly, O.P.).

Mensaje de la semana

Veintisé segundo domingo en el tiempo ordinario

Sirach aconseja: "Llevad tus asuntos con humildad. Humillaos cuanto más, más grandes eres, y encontrarás el favor de Dios". Cristo promete que "el que se humune será exaltado". ¿Por qué la humildad es parte integral de la rectitud cristiana? La humildad nos hace conscientes del don que se nos ha dado: acercarnos a "Jesús, el mediador de un nuevo convenio". Por lo tanto, la humildad no es derrotismo o falsa sensación de inutilidad, sino un reconocimiento de nuestro verdadero valor en Cristo. "Es una virtud tranquila y clara, que no debe ser seducida por la tentadora perspectiva de la grandeza terrenal a costa de la grandeza espiritual,... la humildad nos da sentido común espiritual, permitiéndonos ver y actuar hacia las cosas tal como son". (Padre Walter Farrell, O.P.).
