

Message of the Week

Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time.

When Peter tries to deny the Lord his Passion—"God forbid that such a thing ever happen to you!"—he, in effect, is denying the possibility of happiness itself.

"It is only by freeing himself through suffering," said Pope Benedict XVI, "that a man finds himself, that he finds his truth, his joy, his happiness." Therefore, we eagerly offer our bodies as a living sacrifice to God. For, no matter how much our sharing in Christ's cross may make us an object of the world's laughter and mockery, we know that our need to live our relationship with the Lord will become like fire burning in our heart. "The cross forces us to look upon the fact that we are loved by God. The cross becomes a new center of gravity for the bringing together of what is divided" (Pope Benedict XVI).

Mensaje de la semana

XXII el domingo del tiempo ordinario.

Cuando Pedro trata de negarle a Jehová su pasión — "¡Dios no permita que tal cosa te suceda jamás!" — él, en efecto, está negando la posibilidad de la felicidad misma. "es sólo al liberarse a sí mismo a través del sufrimiento", dijo el Papa Benedicto XVI, "que un hombre se encuentra, que encuentra su verdad, su gozo, su felicidad." Por lo tanto, ofrecemos con entusiasmo nuestros cuerpos como un sacrificio vivo a Dios. Porque, no importa cuánto nuestro compartir en la Cruz de Cristo pueda hacernos un objeto de la risa y de la mofa del mundo, sabemos que nuestra necesidad de vivir nuestra relación con el Señor se convertirá como fuego ardiendo en nuestro corazón. "la cruz nos obliga a mirar el hecho de que somos amados por Dios." La Cruz se convierte en un nuevo centro de gravedad para el acercamiento de lo que se divide "(Papa Benedicto XVI)."

Thank you Sharon, Johnny Melton & their daughter for reupholstering the prayer benches.

Thank you Bobbie for the beautiful flowers and gardening skills you have provided.
