

Message of the Week

Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary time

What is most striking about the landowner is the relentless way he himself goes out to find laborers (five times), his willingness to hire the “rejects,” and his desire to pay them a full day’s wage. Jesus tells us that the Kingdom of heaven is like this landowner. The love of heaven takes the initiative in seeking us out. The love of heaven chooses us despite our utter unworthiness. And the love of heaven is lavish in its self-gift to us. To love the Kingdom of heaven is to love this landowner and the way he acts. The temptation is for us to measure our life and “the way things should be” by a standard at odds with God. Instead, “seek the Lord while he may be found, call him while he is near,” because, for us, “life is Christ.”

Mensaje de la semana

Vigésimo quinto el domingo del tiempo ordinario

Lo más llamativo sobre el terrateniente es el implacable camino que él mismo sale a buscar trabajadores (cinco veces), su voluntad de contratar a los "rechazos" y su deseo de pagar el salario de un día completo. Jesús nos dice que el Reino de los cielos es como este terrateniente. El amor del cielo toma la iniciativa en la búsqueda de nosotros. El amor del cielo nos elige a pesar de nuestra indignidad absoluta. Y el amor de los cielos espléndido en su auto regalo para nosotros. Amar el Reino de los cielos es amor este terrateniente y la forma en que actúa. La tentación es para que medir nuestra vida y "las cosas deben ser" por una norma con Dios. En cambio, "Buscad al Señor mientras puede ser hallado, llámale mientras que él está cerca," porque, para nosotros, "la vida es Cristo".
